

Danish Cardiovascular Research Academy

PhD-Scholarship within the research area “Human cardiovascular systemic function with potential clinical applications” at the University of Southern Denmark

Danish Cardiovascular Research Academy (DaCRA) is a national graduate school aimed to stimulate research and PhD training specifically within cardiovascular sciences. DaCRA is funded for a 5-year period by The Danish Research Agency, the three Danish faculties of Health Sciences and external sponsors. For further information about the Academy, see our web site www.dacra.dk.

As part of our 5-year programme, a PhD scholarship will be available for a qualified applicant from 1 February, 2004. This scholarship will be co-financed with Hjerteforeningen. The applicant's research project should be within the research area Human cardiovascular systemic function with potential clinical applications. The study will be performed at the Department of Physiology and Pharmacology and/or at the Department of Medicine B, Odense University Hospital. Further informations about the possible research projects can be obtained from professor Peter Bie, Physiology and Pharmacology (+45 6550 3799; pbie@health.sdu.dk) or professor Torben Haghfelt, Department of Medicine C (+45 6541 2623; bente.wichmann@ouh.fyns-amt.dk).

The salary will be in accordance to the Agreement between the Danish Confederation of Professional Associations and the Ministry of Finance.

The applicant should have a master's degree in medicine, biology or similar, and it is required that the applicant is enrolled as a PhD-student and follows the study programme required for achieving a PhD-degree within 3 years.

The PhD programme is to be completed in accordance with the Ministerial Order for the PhD programme and degree of the Ministry of Science, Technology and Development, and the Regulations and Guidelines defined by the University of Southern Denmark (see www.ou.dk)

The letter of application should include information about the specific project proposed, curriculum vitae and a copy of the master's degree certificate. It should be explained why the research project is of interest for you and why you are particularly qualified for the scholarship.

Application in 5 copies marked “Cardiovascular PhD” should be received by the Faculty of Health Sciences, Winsløwparken 17, DK-5000 Odense C, not later than noon 15 January 2004.
